LMM Board News

LMM welcomed new members Dr. Clay Thomason III, Jim Broome and Randy Boyd, CPA to its board of directors meeting held on Saturday, October 17th at the First ARP Church in Gastonia.

In an effort to orient our newest members, Lumière's founding father and current board member, Dr. E.S. "Buddy" Whitesides shared an historical perspective of LMM reminding us all of how God has blessed and used this ministry to bring spiritual and physical healing to the lives of so many.

This, followed by an optimistic report in our ongoing volunteer recruiting effort, dubbed The Next Generation, proved to be especially encouraging. In January and February three highly experienced physicians will make the first of what we hope to be many trips to Haiti with LMM.

In addition, thanks to the talented Christian leadership in Haiti, each of our four ministry programs are experiencing growth and making quality enhancements as they pursue our vision to "demonstrate the love of Jesus Christ through quality healthcare, rehabilitative and educational services."

As your board looks back we say, "To God be the glory great things He hath done"; and we look forward in faith, which is the substance of things hoped for (ref. Heb. 11:1)

Dr. Clay Thomason III— is an orthopedic surgeon with Carolina Orthopedic & Sports Medicine Center. He and his wife Tracy live in Gastonia with sons Hank and Dalton.

Jim Broome works with Burke Hosiery Mills and resides in Gastonia with wife, Cathy, and daughter, Hannah.

Randy Boyd is an accountant with McCannon, Rogers, Driscoll, & Associates and lives in Gastonia with wife, Amy, and sons Tyler and Spencer.

VOLUNTEERS

Team visits King's in September

Dr. Hubert Morquette and Junie Hyacinthe of King's Organization hosted volunteers Stuart Peele and his daughter, Marijean, Hannah Carr and Josh Jenkins September 19-25. Hannah was able to stay an additional week, traveling to other areas supported by LMM. Here are some highlights of their visit:

Many thanks to Girl Scout Troop 1175 leader, Janice Allen, for sharing the following:

"Miriam Elmore provided Troop 1175 with a wonderful opportunity to work with Lumière Ministries in sorting items that will go to Haiti to assist the poor in that country. The troop sorted scrubs, linens and various other items into like piles. They also learned about the country of Haiti and how poor most of the population is there. On the way home, the Scouts discussed what hard work they did but also how much fun they had helping others. They all realized just how fortunate they are here in America and how much they can help others with just a little bit of time."
